was adopted :

Resolved, That we petition the Board of Aldermen and Board of Common Conneil to amend the act approved April 28, 1860, relative to cleaning and watering Pennsylvania relative to cleaning and watering Pennsylvania avenue, by striking out all after the enacting clause, and inserting the following:

Be it enacted, dec, "That the sum of $3,000 be and the same is hereby appropriated, out of any money to the credit of the Second, Third, Fourth, and Fifth Wards, not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of cleaning and watering Pennsylvania avenue from Filteenth street, west to the west gate of the Capitol: street west to the west gate of the Capitol; each of said wards to pay in proportion to the number of feet so cleaned and watered. The work to be done under the direction of the Mayor, in conjunction with one commissioner from each of the above named wards, to be appointed by the Mayor.

The following gentlemen were then appointed a committee to obtain signatures to the above petition: Second Ward-M. W. Galt and S. Lewis. Third Ward-J. W. Nairn and H. Taylor. Fourth Ward-P. H. Hooe and J. Shilling-

Fifth Ward-J. Purdy and G. M. Oyster. On motion by Mr. Dodson, the committee was instructed to urge upon the municipal authorities the propriety of amending the act limiting the time of watering the streets, so as to permit them to be watered at or near the hour of 3 o'clock P. M.

We are glad to see that our merchants are at last being awakened to the importance of this matter. It has long been a crying evil, and should receive the prompt sttention of the City Councils, either by the adoption of this or some other suitable plan.

EXTENSIVE CONFLAGRATION .- About two o'clock on Saturday morning, the residence of Mr. C. F. E. Richardson, on L street, between Mr. C. F. E. Richardson, on L street, between Eleventh and Twelith streets, was discovered to be on fire. Mr. R. was aroused by the smoke, and gave an alarm, but had barely time to aronse his family and aid their escape from the building. Only a small portion of his furniture was saved. The flames soon spread to the adjoining house, also owned by Mr. Richardson, and occupied by Mr. A. Arnold and family, which was totally destroyed. The house next adjoining, occupied and owned by Mr. J. W. Nairn, then caught fire, and was soon burnt to the ground. The house of J. P. Dodson, a colored laborer in the Capitol, in turn fell a prey to the devouring element, and turn fell a prey to the devouring element, and efforts of the Perseverance, Frank lin, and Columbia Fire Companies, who were early on the ground, the house of Mrs. Sarah Goddard, at the corner of Eleventh street, would have soon fared with the rest. The fam ilies in most of the houses had scarcely time to escape, and very little of the personal effects of the occupants were saved. These houses were all two story frame buildings, and

Mr. Richardson's houses were valued at about $3,000, on which and his effects he has an insurance of $2 100. Mr. Naira's house was estimated to be worth $2 500, on which was estimated to be work $2,000, on which there was an insurance of $1,000 in the North American Company, Philadelphia. Mr. Dodson's property was valued at $1,500, and was insured for about one third.

of an incerdary. As the fire occurred in an early hour of the morning, very few persons were on the ground, from which fact the loss is probably greater than it would have been had the fire taken place at an errlier hour. Much credit is due to the water-tapper, Mr. H. Gettier, for his promptness in turning on the water for the firemen, who, aided by several of the police and a number of the citizens, rendered very valuable assistance.

ANOTHER -Yesterlay morning about one o'clock, a brick stable, situated on Seventeenth street, near D, was discovered to be on fire, street, near D, was discovered to be on fire, and in a short time was entirely consumed. Two carriages, which could not be got out, were entirely destroyed, and a valuable horse also perished in the flames. The stable and contents were the property of Captain Carbery, and is believed to have been set on fire. The Union, Franklin, and Western Hose fire companies were early on the ground; but, on account of the difficulty in procuring water, their services were not of much utility.

St. Patrick's Day. - Yesterday was St. St. Patrick's Day usually is, but damp, chilly, and unpleasant, withal. Large crowds flocked to the various Catholic churches in the morning, where the services were of more than ual interest, particularly at that bearing the name of Ireland's patron saint, where beautiful and touching panegyric was pro-nonneed by the Rev. B. A. Maguire, pastor of St. Aloysius Church. At St. Aloysius Church, Rev. F. E. Boyle preached a sermon in aid of the objects of charity, to which the Young Catholic Friends' Society is dovoted, which was listened to with much interest.

To night, the Phonix Society will colebrate the national festival by a supper at Gautier's, which will no doubt be a very fine affair.

CRIMINAL COURT .- On Saturday, Mary Jane Herbert, indected for an assault and battery on Jane Jackson, submitted her case to the court, who, after hearing the evidence, imposed a fine of $5 and costs.

Philip Wagner, for an assault and battery on Augustus Roth, submitted his case to the court, who, after hearing the facts, ordered him to pay a fine of $8 and costs.

James Fogarty, for an assault and battery on John Hagae, submitted his case to the court, who heard the evidence, but deferred judgment until Monday.

The case of Edward O'Brien, charged with stealing a horse and carriage from George M Miller, and which was commenced the day be-fore, was then taken up. Several other wit-nesses were examined, and the case then given DISORDERLY GATHERING .- About ten o'clock on Saturday night, Officers Suit, Gormley, and Carter, made a descent on the house occupied by a colored man named Joe Fletcher, situated by a colored man named Joe Fletcher, situated on Fifth street, between G and H, and arrested a crowd of colored men who were there engaged in playing cards. The party was composed of the following persons, some of whom were fined, and others sent to the workhouse: Samuel Dennison, Lloyd Johnson, Bernard West William Woodward, Basil Harrison, Henson M.kel, and Anthony Selby. As the officers entered the premises, they found a hog, which had just been killed, and one live one, which escaped from them. They also arrested William Bowie and Joe Fletcher for stealing the hogs, and took them before Justice Clark, who held them for a further hearing.

The evidence thus far elicited before the Naval Court, in the case of Commodore Armstrong, shows that this officer, notwithstanding e had the means at his control, declined to use them to prevent the property under his command from falling into the hands of the State authorities. The case against Commodore Armstrong will be pretty strong, judg-ing from the evidence already given.

SECRESION IN THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.—The present sessions of the Balti-more and the East Baltimore Annual Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, now assembled respectively at Staunton. Virginia, and Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, are the most important ever held. The great question to be decided is the approval or d sapproval of the new chapter added to the Discipline of the Church by the last General Conference, making non-slaveholding a test of membership. The feeling in the Church is very high on he subject, and it is expected that the controversy will result in the division of the Church, the membership opposed to the new rule preferring a separation rather than to submit to its pro ision.—Bultimore Exchange.

Prospectus of the National Republican. Believing that the time has arrived when the great Republican party of the United States ought to be fairly represented in the daily press of the National Metropolis, we have embarked in the enterprise of supplying the citizens of the District of Columbia with a daily publication, under the title of the " NATIONAL REPUBLICAN." In its political department, this journal will advocate and defend the principles of the Republican party, and endeavor to disabuse the public mind of groundless prejudices which have been engendered against it, by the false accusations of its enemics. Having the u'most confidence that the administration of Mr. Lincoln will be such as to merit our approbation, we expect to yield it a cordial, but not a servile support. In the great issue that is likely to be made with his administration, by the coemies of the Republican party, the people of Washington and the District of Columbia have more at stake than the people of any other portion of our common country. We believe that to support Mr. Lincoln's administra-tion will be synonymous with maintaining the in-tegrity of the Federal Union, against the machinstions of those who would rend it a under. No one can doubt upon which side of this issue the people of Washington will be found, when they come to realize that it is fairly forced upon them. We feel confident, therefore, that in yielding to the administration of Mr. Lincoln a cordial support, we shall have the sympathy of an immense majority of the people of this District and vicin-

It is not our design, however, to make the It is not our design, nowever, to make the National Republican a mere political paper. We intend, that as a medium of general and local news, it shall not be inferior to any other journal published in this city. We shall pay particular attention to questions of local policy, and advocate such reforms as we may deem essential to the prosperity of the city, and to the advancement of the more and married weights of its ment of the moral and material welfare of its inhabitants.

We deem it unnecessary, however, to multiply promises, as the paper wil, immediately make its appearance, and will then speak for itself. It will be published every morning, and de-
